WILSON IS TO BE GOVERNOR UNTIL REFORMS ARE WON

President-Elect to Resign Present Place Only After Legislature Passes His Bills.

ASSEMBLY IS WITH HIM

Corporation Law Changes Among Things He Wants From Friendly Lawmakers.

By Associated Press.

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 7.—Just because Woodrow Wilson is the President-elect of the United States, he does not, he asserts, intend to retire from the fight he has waged for two years for a program of progressive legislation in New Jersey. He said today he would "stay on the job at Trenton," until he had carried out his reforms, but with a Democratic Legislature behind him, this is likely to be a smooth process when that body convenes Jan. 1.

Wilson is much pleased that not only is New Jersey to be represented by two Democrats in the United States Senate, but both houses of the State Legislature will be Democratic. A year ago he stumped the State to obtain a Democratic Legislature, but was beaten.

Expects Country to Watch. The President-elect said today that the program of reform he had in mind for the State would be advanced by the fact that as the future executive of the country, nation-wide attention probably will be attracted by his policy in the New Jersey Legislature.

"Whatever we do in New Jersey," he said, "will have the force of the whole country behind it."

The Governor has not announced his program for the next session of the Legislature, but it is likely that after he takes a brief vacation he will call a conference of State leaders and a legislative program will be mapped out.

The Democratic platform recommends a constitutional convention. It is known that the Governor wants to have the corporation laws of the State revised. The reform in this connection, he declares, he never had an opportunity of putting through, because the Legislature was not with him.

When Gov. Wilson resigns in accordance with the constitution the president of the State Senate will become governor until the next regular election, which is due next fall.

Likely Successor of Wilson.

James H. Fielder, senator from Hudson County, and Democratic minority leader of the Upper House, it is said, will be elevated to the presidency of the body and therefore may be Gov. Wilson's successor.

The President-elect expects to leave here on the morning of Nov. 16 for his brief vacation. He will sail on a private yacht, furnished by a personal friend. With Mrs. Wilson, and his host and some correspondents, the President-elect will make the trip to the Bermudas where, before this, he has recuperated from hard work as president of Princeton.

of insurgent Republicans may prove essential.

WILSON MISSOURI LEAD INCREASING

Returns from nearly three-fourths of the precincts in Missouri gave Wilson 27,000; Taft, 163,000; Roosevelt, 100,000.

The same precincts gave McKim 161,000, Major 270,000 and Norton 80,000. It will probably require three days more to get the entire Missouri vote.

Republican Party Officially Dead in North Carolina.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., Nov. 7.—Because of its failure to poll 50,000 votes in Tuesday's gubernatorial election, the Republican party in North Carolina is "officially dead," according to statements made by local lawyers. They say a law of the State bars from recognition in any political campaign a party which did not poll 50,000 votes in the previous election. Thomas Settle, Republican candidate for Governor, received less than 50,000 votes, and it is doubtful if Irzal Meares, Progressive, polled 50,000.

Hampers, Ark., Congratulates McCombe.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Many telegrams of congratulation have reached Chairman McCombe's headquarters during the last 24 hours. One is from William J. Bryan.

Another is from the citizens of Hamburg, Ark., where Mr. McCombe was born and reared. This is framed in most enthusiastic praise and signed by more than a hundred men.

BULGARS PROMISE SUNDAY 'TE DEUM' IN CONSTANTINOPLE

Barricades Urged by Powers to Head Off Possible Flight of City's Defenders.

By Associated Press.
LONDON, Nov. 7.—"We will sing a te deum of Thanksgiving in the Mosque of St. Sophia next Sunday," boasted leaders of the conquering army of Bulgaria today before the last Turkish battle line between them and the city of Constantinople.

Of the great European empire conquered by Mohammedan invaders centuries ago, there remained today only five small districts in the hands of the Turks. Even these—Constantinople, Adrianople, Saloniki, Monastir and Scutari—are threatened.

It is now reported that the great stronghold of Saloniki has been evacuated and that the Turkish army stationed in the city has been withdrawn, but no confirmation of this has yet been received. Which direction the retreating army is supposed to have taken was not mentioned in the report, but it is true that the Turks have abandoned the city, they must sooner or later come into contact with one of the armies investing the fortress, whichever way they take.

Monastir, where Fethi Pasha had a large Turkish army, is said to have been occupied by the allied Balkan troops.

Only One Defense of Capital.
Between the Bulgarian army and Constantinople now stand only the Tchatalja forts held by an army that has suffered a series of crushing defeats and it is believed in military circles is incapable of making any sustained defense against a vigorous assault.

Some villages in the vicinity of this last line of defense are reported already in the hands of the Bulgarians, and it is believed that a last battle is in progress between the defenders and the invaders at these forts, which are the last outside of the capital.

The Turkish fortress of Scutari, near the Montenegrin frontier, and that of Adrianople in the Eastern sphere are still making a stubborn resistance. Military critics, who know the country well, utter the warning not to expect the early fall of Adrianople. The critics point out that the invaders have not yet reached the principal line of forts around the city.

The defenders of Scutari, too, have repeatedly and successfully assumed the offensive, and have managed to keep this line open by which they can supply Tatarakoch and the other Turkish fortresses on Lake Scutari with provisions and ammunition.

Protection for Constantinople.
Preparations are being made for the protection of the menaced population of Constantinople. At the request of the foreign ambassadors, reinforcements have been thrown up at San Stefano and at Kilkane so that if the front that occurred after previous battles should be repeated, the mob of fleeing soldiers can be checked.

The American high school for girls at Scutari, on the Asia Minor side of the Bosphorus, has sent its scholars of Bulgarian nationality on board one of the British cruisers now at Constantinople, owing to fears for their safety, according to a news agency dispatch from the Turkish capital.

Married, Forged to Buy Presents for Another Man

I didn't. I got a room at the place where I was arrested, and found work as a salesgirl. The last job I had was with the Bolland Jewelry Co., in the stationery department."

When asked why she drew the checks the young woman at first was unwilling to state, but finally she admitted that about the middle of September she met a young man from Wisconsin, whose name, she said, was Bob Harrington. She said that she liked Harrington very much and wanted to make him a present, so she thought of her aunt's account at the bank and made out a check for $5, which she cashed at the bank without difficulty.

Likes to Be Kind to Everybody.
"I gave the young man a present, and here the next day I cashed another small check. I have cashed 30 in all, and on all of them I drew the money against at the bank."

"I lost my position about the first of October. I have used some of the money for clothes and some for my living expenses. Some money I have given away to playboys and others. It is in my heart to be kind to everybody."

Mrs. Kasper refuses to tell where the young man Harrington is, saying she does not want to involve him in her difficulties. She is a small brunette, attractive in appearance.

Assistant Circuit Attorney Rudolph has put the nominal charge of obtaining money by false pretenses against her until her story can be investigated more fully. The checks she cashed were in sums ranging from $5 to $25.

A Drastic Disposal of "Dropped-Number" Rugs of Standard Makes

At Savings Averaging One-Third and More on Former Prices

We have "stolen a march" on time this year—and given you the chance to refurnish your entire home with rugs, if you will, at actual savings of from a third to almost half, in some instances, of what we purchased these very Rugs to sell for.

And why? Well, twice each year all manufacturers of rugs and carpets revise their lines, taking from them such patterns which they wish to discontinue.

We are in receipt of information from the leading mills, advising us the numbers which are to be dropped. We will not be able to duplicate these numbers, and in order to keep a complete pattern and color-range, must order a supply of many entirely new patterns.

Instead of having one pattern in one size, and another in another, we want to show a variety and many patterns in each size, and so we have gone through our stocks and selected these "dropped patterns" for reduction.

The makes included are: Alexander Smith and Sons, Bigelow Carpet Co., J. W. Dimmick, S. Sanford & Sons and Hartford makes. The size-range from 6x9 feet to 12x15 feet and all grades are included. They are all clean and in perfect condition.

INITIATIVE IN CITY CARRIES BY 209 ON UNOFFICIAL RETURN

Amendment Gives St. Louisans Power to Make Their Own Laws Direct.

CAN ACT ON BRIDGE

Voters Made Independent of the Assembly, Have Voice on Franchises.

The initiative and referendum amendment to the city charter, which appears upon official returns to have been carried by 209 majority, is now a part of the organic law of the city, unless the official returns reveal some error in tabulation of the votes cast upon it.

A three-fifths majority of the votes cast upon the amendment was necessary to carry it. The affirmative vote in Tuesday's election was 62,351, and the negative vote was 41,221. The vote required to carry the amendment was 62,111.

Under this amendment the people may enact legislation themselves, without any regard to the Municipal Assembly. The amendment provides that the people may submit an ordinance at any regular election upon 15 per cent of the voters signing petitions demanding it, and that 25 per cent of the voters may at any time call a special election for the submission of any proposition to a direct vote of the people.

The initiative and referendum was voted into the Constitution of the State four years ago, and has since been used many times. In the recent election four constitutional amendments were proposed by the initiative process. They were the amendments providing for the single tax, the State Tax Commission to apportion the State Board of Equalization, the amendment to give grand juries the power to open ballot boxes in the investigation of fraud, and the amendment providing for the collection of a 10-cent tax for the support of public elementary and high schools, state normals, Lincoln Institute and the State University.

The people of St. Louis may now employ this same device of government to submit to themselves at any election any proposition in which they are vitally interested.

Reber Approach Bill. There has been talk that in the event the amendment carried petitions would be circulated for the repeal of the Reber railroad approach bill. This bill was passed by the Municipal Assembly about a year ago, after a hard fight.

If 15 per cent of the qualified voters of St. Louis should sign a petition to submit the repeal of this bill to a vote of the people, such a proposition would have to be printed and on the city ballot at the municipal election next spring.

At the same time and by the same method the people could submit bills providing for the selection of either the Gerhardt or the Alton & Mississippi approaches.

Then the people would go to the polls at the election and vote on these bills direct, and if a majority of them voted in favor of either proposition it would become a law, without regard to any action by the Municipal Assembly.

The initiative and referendum has been extensively used in Missouri since it was voted into the Constitution. In 1910 was submitted by this method.

Makes People Lawmakers. The initiative and referendum simply lodges the law making power direct in the people, instead of leaving it entirely in the hands of delegates chosen to represent them.

It provides specifically that any general public service corporation franchise shall be submitted to a vote of the people, without petition, before it becomes operative. This is the only legislation by the Assembly that is automatically referred to the people.

If the Municipal Assembly, for illustration, should pass a franchise for a new street railway system in St. Louis, the franchise would not be valid until it had been approved by a majority vote of the people at the city, at a general or special election, the Assembly having the power to determine whether a special election shall be called.

The initiative and referendum has been more extensively used in Oregon than in any other state in the union. It has also been used extensively in Wisconsin. It is endorsed in the platform of both the Democratic and Progressive parties. It has been long advocated by such leaders as Col. Bryan, and later by Col. Roosevelt. It is designed to give the people a greater voice in their own affairs.

The amendment was not opposed by any political party in the election Tuesday. On the contrary, it was endorsed by the Democrats, Republicans and Socialists. Its failure to get a greater majority is attributed to political leaders to the fact that many persons did not wholly understand what they were voting for, and scratched "yes" without having much idea as to whether they were voting for or against a useful device of government.

WOULD INCREASE RATES. JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Nov. 7.—The Interstate Commerce Commission has notified the Missouri Board of Railroad and Warehouse Commissioners that it is considering the proposition of permitting an increase of express rates in Missouri equal to 50 per cent of the present rates.

Secretary Bradbury of the commission says a protest will be made to any increase in express rates in Missouri. Just why the question of permitting the companies to increase express rates has arisen is not clear.

NO 'HARD TIMES,' SIMMONS WRITES TO HIS SALESMEN

Head of Hardware Firm Requests Avoidance of Calamity Howling, Says He Is Conident Wilson Won't Disturb Business.

A letter of business optimism and good cheer was sent out by the Simmons Hardware Co. Wednesday to its 500 salesmen throughout the United States. The letter was written by E. C. Simmons, chairman of the company's Board of Directors, and was in effect a request to the salesmen to avoid "calamity howling" over the result of the election, and to help keep up general business confidence.

"I believe," said Mr. Simmons, in giving a copy of the letter to the Post-Dispatch, "that it is a good thing for business men to do what they can to quiet the minds of the people, and remove any apprehension of dread, doubt, distrust or disturbance to business interests, and to do it as soon as possible."

Letter to Salesmen. The letter to salesmen is as follows: "Now that the election is over, and it is a settled fact that Gov. Wilson is to be the next President of the United States, I feel it to be the duty of all the business men engaged in large enterprises—in fact, business men of all kinds—to quiet the public mind, and relieve all apprehension of injury to the business interests of this country by the fact of Mr. Wilson's election. I do not believe it will disturb business a particle—I do not believe Gov. Wilson intends to recommend, to influence or allow any legislation that will be injurious to the workman—to the wage earner—or to the business interests of this country."

Big Vote Significant. "I should be glad if anything I could say on this subject would tend to quiet the minds of those who may be in doubt or fear, or have any dread of evil results or injury to the present prosperous conditions that prevail from one end of this land to the other. I am in no sense a politician—I am a business man, and speaking only from business interests and business convictions, I am absolutely sure that there will be no disturbance and no injury to the commercial affairs of the United States by the election of Gov. Woodrow Wilson to be our next President.

"The only disturbing influence that may come (should one come) will be a false one, and will arise from the continuation of the effort to alarm the public with 'scarecrows.'"

"The significant fact that so large a number of the American people have chosen Gov. Wilson for their chief executive should be in itself a convincing argument, even to those who may differ from Gov. Wilson politically, that these voters have faith in Gov. Wilson as a leader, in his patriotism, his judgment and his sanity."

FINANCE CAPTAINS NOT AFRAID OF GOV. WILSON General Business Won't Be Affected by Democratic Revision of Tariff.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Well-known men today expressed the opinion that general business would not be seriously affected by the election of Wilson and a revision of the tariff.

B. F. Yoakum, chairman of the Board of Directors of the Frisco lines, said: "The Democratic victory does not by any means settle all the big economic questions of the day. In meeting these the Democratic party is on probation. The entire country looks to it for results during the next four years."

James J. Hill declared the success of the Democratic party would not have an adverse effect upon business. He said: "I feel better over the general outlook than I did before election."

H. C. Friek said: "I was particularly well pleased with Mr. Wilson's conduct throughout the campaign. I believe he will give the country a good, safe and sane administration."

George J. Gould said that a Democratic administration would have little or no effect on business, which is now on a sound basis.

"The tariff adjustment," he said, "cannot be made in a day, a month or a year, and any changes will be so gradual that business will readily adjust itself to the new conditions."

W. E. Corey, former president of the United States Steel Corporation, said that Gov. Wilson would make an able and conservative business President.

TAFT PLANS CLUB TO SAVE PARTY AND U. S. CONSTITUTION

President Believes Bull Moose and Socialistic Movements Menace Country.

Special to the Post-Dispatch. COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 7.—Believing all the Bull Moose and Socialistic movements are a menace to the Constitution, President Taft already is planning to close the ranks of the Republican party and to add to it all "constitutional-loving Democrats."

He proposes to do this through the formation of a "National Republican Club." President Taft told the Post-Dispatch correspondent election day that if defeated through the interference of Theodore Roosevelt and his followers, he would devote all his energy to working to save the life of constitutional government.

He was asked by the Post-Dispatch correspondent on the train last night whether he had made a definite plan of campaign for saving the Republican party. He said that he did not know that he would be the one selected to do it, but that he had in mind the organization of a "National Republican Club" which would not interfere with the National Republican Committee but work the year round and every year while the National Committee works practically only during campaigns.

The President, while determined to do all he can to hold the Republican party together, has no feeling of resentment against Gov. Wilson. He believes that Gov. Wilson will be a good, conservative President, with troubles on his hands, the troubles being Congress.

With the heartiest laugh heard in the well-lit train, the President, then feigning severity he said that he was going to be mighty indignant when the Democratic House, Senate and President failed to repeal or revise the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill in two years after all the promises the Democrats had made.

Speaking of a "conservative" President succeeding him, the President told a story of his experience when as a member of the Cabinet he had to supervise a Cuban election. Senor Zias was candidate on the Radical ticket. He explained to the American Government that to get the votes he must talk "radical" but that when he went into office he would act as a "conservative."

MISSOURI OFFICES
WORTH $1,000,000
GO TO DEMOCRATS

Postoffices, Attorneyships, Etc., to Be Distributed by Wilson
After Inauguration.

BIG STATE PLACES TO FILL

Folk, Goltra and Wells Expected to Have Big Voice in U. S.
Appointments.

The election of a Democratic President and Governor will give Missouri Democrats control of Federal and State appointive offices with salaries aggregating more than $1,000,000 a year. It has been 16 years since Missouri Democrats have had a taste of Federal "pie." The Republicans have had all the postoffices, and the many other places controlled by the President, while they also have been sharing in the State positions, especially in the last four years. The new State officers take their desks next January.

Here are some of the places the Democrats will get from the new President, as soon after his inauguration as it is practicable to make changes: Two hundred and sixty-three postoffices with salaries of $1000 to $3000 a year, the aggregate salaries amounting to about $600,000 a year.

District Attorneys, Marshals, Surveyors, Collectors of the Revenue, Assistant Treasurers and other minor officials at St. Louis and Kansas City.

$5000 Postmastership Here.
The St. Louis Postoffice will give some Democrat an $5000 a year office and another Democrat, as assistant, a place at $4000. The Kansas City Postoffice pays a salary of $3000 a year, the St. Joseph Postoffice $2000, Jefferson City $2100, Hannibal $3000, and scores of others from $3000 to $5000.

United States Attorneys at St. Louis and Kansas City are paid $4500 a year each, and have the right to appoint two assistants each, at salaries of $2500 a year. United States Marshals at St. Louis and Kansas City get $4000 a year, and appoint deputies.

Where there are vacancies in the United States Courts the President makes appointments, usually selecting men of his own political faith for these offices. United States Judges get $6000 and $7000 a year. The Subtreasurer at St. Louis receives $5000 a year.

There will come into control of the Democrats, through the election of Woodrow Wilson, thousands of other Federal offices, with salaries of $1000 to $2500 and more.

It has been the custom for the Federal patronage to be distributed on the recommendations of Senators of the same faith as the President. This, however, is not always the case. Congressmen often demand the right to name the postmasters and other Federal appointees in their own districts, and more recently the chairman of state committees have been demanding the right to approve appointments. Sometimes national committees also have a prominent part in the distribution.

Folk Friendly to Wilson.
It is expected Gov. Wilson, in making his appointments, will be guided by the advice of Missourians who have been friendly to him and who have aided him in his fight. Former Gov. Folk, National Committeeman Goltra, and former Mayor Rolla Wells have been conspicuous in the Wilson fight from the beginning, and it is said by Democratic politicians that their endorsement will go a long way toward landing the big appointments.

President Taft has been guided largely in making his appointments in Missouri by the advice of Charles Nagel, who was Secretary of Commerce and Labor in the President's Cabinet, and Republican National Committeeman. Former Senator Warner had a prominent part in the distribution of patronage until his retirement two years ago.

There is a possibility that St. Louis will get at least one cabinet office from the new President. Former Mayor Wells, who was treasurer of the Democratic National Committee, has been mentioned for Secretary of the Treasury, and former Gov. Folk has been mentioned for Attorney-General, or another cabinet office. Folk is said to have the backing of William J. Bryan.

Many State Offices to Fill.
The Democratic Governor will have the appointment of the police and election boards of St. Louis, Kansas City and St. Joseph, and the St. Louis Excise Commissioner. Under the law the election boards are comprised of two Democrats and two Republicans. The Excise Commissioners get $3000 a year, and the police commissioners $1000. The Excise Commissioner of St. Louis pays $5000.

The Governor will have the appointment of a State Beer Inspector at $3000 a year; and the Beer Inspector appoints assistants who get $12,500 a year. There are barber inspectors at $3 a day; a bank examiner at $3500 a year, with 11 examiners and assistants at salaries of $2500 down to $1500; factory inspector at $2000, Food and Drug Commissioner at $2000, Game and Fish Warden at $2500, Hotel Inspector at $2000, Immigration Commissioner at $2000, Insurance Commissioner at $2000, Labor Commissioner at $2000, Adjutant-General at $2000, mine inspectors at $1800, Local Oil Inspector at $2000, penitentiary warden and superintendents of the several State institutions for the insane, blind and deaf to be appointed by the Governor.

TO PROTEST AGAINST NEW DANCES OF DEBUTANTES

Philadelphia Society Matrons Amazed by Late Hours Kept by Younger Set.
PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7.—Mrs. William West Frazier, wife of the retired sugar refiner and a leader of society in this city, has called a meeting at her home for Friday to protest not only against the dances which the Philadelphia debutantes are indulging in, but also the late hours they keep.

Several of the more prominent matrons will aid in this movement for social reforms, and among those who will attend the meeting are Mrs. E. T. Stotesbury, wife of a partner of J. P. Morgan, Mrs. Charles Maguire Tower, wife of the former ambassador to Germany; Mrs. George H. Frazier, Mrs. Charles H. Frazier and Mrs. Stanley C. Platt Jr.

Mrs. Stotesbury and her daughter, Mrs. Walter Brooks, who is one of the youngest matrons of Washington and Baltimore society, were shocked at the dances of the girls here.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—A race from the Persian Gulf to New York for a prize of $100,000 to the consignees and a bonus of $1000 for the skipper and $1500 for the crew of the winner is on between the British steamships, Turkestan and Stanhope. One or the other ship may be reported today. Both are rushing hither with expedition, the Turkestan with 100,000 boxes and the Stanhope with 90,000 boxes of the season's first dates.

The dates of the winging ship will sell at 4 1/2 cents per pound, or $3.45.

And His Stomach Is All Right

Thousands with Poor Teeth Have Good Digestion by Using Stuart's
Dyspepsia Tablets After Meals.

Whether or not we eat too much, is a matter for individual judgment. Benjamin Franklin tried the experiment of living on a handful of raisins. But he discovered that the question wasn't what he ate nor the quantity thereof, but one of digestion and assimilation. The normal person eats heartily, and with keen enjoyment. That is because his mind doesn't anticipate stomach trouble. And if he does have an attack of sour stomach or indigestion he knows that the use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets give quick relief.

A Gentleman of the "Old School" Who Keeps Up With the Times.

Many people have poor teeth, weak gums, sore teeth and other troubles, some troubles that prevent a vigorous mastication of food. And instead of eating soft, mushy food that palls on the appetite they go in for those savory dishes, the very odor of which starts the saliva and makes the stomach fairly reel with anticipation.

This is but a natural condition. Anything else borders upon the indifference which fosters indigestion and chronic dyspepsia. It may be safely said that it should not be a question of diet or kind of food, or teeth or even any of the reflexes which are supposed to have their influence in deranging the stomach. It is simply a matter of supplying the stomach and digestive organs with these known assistants such as pepsin and hydrochloric acid, both of which have a direct and powerful action upon the contents of the stomach.

One grain of a single ingredient in Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest 3000 grains of food. This saves your stomach and gives it the rest it needs. All muscles require occasional rest if they are ever over-taxed. The stomach is no exception to this rule. Try a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and you will wonder how you ever got along without them. They are sold at 50 cents by all druggists everywhere.

FIRING OF BUTLER BROKE UP GERHART HOME, SAYS WIFE

She Testifies Husband Became Angry When She Discharged the Negro "Spy."

DIVORCE GIVEN TO WIFE

Judge Taylor Fixes Alimony at $175 a Month—Wealthy Defendant Not in Court.

The "firing" of a negro butler by Mrs. Julia W. Gerhart of 484 Forest Park boulevard because the negro insolently said to her, "I'm boss of this here house when old man Gerhart isn't around," was the cause of her separation from C. B. Gerhart, wealthy real estate dealer, according to Mrs. Gerhart's testimony in her divorce suit Wednesday.

When Gerhart learned of the butler's dismissal he was so angry about it that he left home after a bitter quarrel with her. This final parting, she testified, took place April 22 last.

Judge Wilson Taylor held up his decision over night while attorneys conferred about alimony. Thursday the Judge gave a divorce and fixed the alimony at $175 a month.

Gerhart did not appear in court and the case was tried by default. His wife testified that he is worth $400,000 and has an income of $30,000 a year.

The butler, Mrs. Gerhart said, confessed that he had been employed by Gerhart to spy on her. "Everything I did was watched by the butler and I could not receive a telephone message without the butler reporting it to Mr. Gerhart," she testified.

The wife said her husband exhibited jealousy. Every time she went out he asked her if she was going to meet some man, she said. This became so offensive that Mrs. Gerhart said she refrained from going out.

Mrs. Gerhart described her husband as possessing a most violent temper. "He was always ragging, nagging, cursing, raving and insulting," she testified. "I never knew when to look for it. It was constantly hanging over me."

She was asked by the Court to mention instances.

"I hardly know where to begin," she answered. Then she told of a scene he caused at the Hotel Jefferson last Christmas in the presence of guests and of his frequently returning home late at night and turning on all the lights in the house. On these occasions, she said, he quarreled most of the night. He often returned intoxicated, she charged.

The wife also testified her husband found fault with her housekeeping, although she prided herself on it. She said there were four servants to keep things tidy.

Says He Boasted Conquests.

That he boasted of his conquests with other women also was a complaint of Mrs. Gerhart against her husband. "He told me there were 20 women ready to take my place and that one of them particularly made me look like 30 cents," said the wife. Another one, it was testified, was termed a queen by the defendant.

Mrs. Gerhart declared she lived in the Forest Park boulevard home until Oct. 7, when she vacated it because she was lonely, and to get away from her husband's annoyance. She said he constantly telephoned that he would have the water and light shut off, and do other things to worry her. "He threatened to leave me stranded," she said.

Mrs. Gerhart went to the Maryland Hotel. She said that once when her husband telephoned she summoned a private watchman, George Barrels, to listen to the conversation.

The watchman was put on the stand and corroborated Mrs. Gerhart. He also testified that one night when she was trying the door in the Gerhart home he heard a quarrel, and a man exclaimed, "D— you, I wish you would go away. I have another woman who looks like a queen."

The Gerharts were married April 11, 1906. Mrs. Gerhart testified that since the separation her husband has given her only $30 and that he stopped her credit. She was accompanied to court by several friends who testified for her. She wore a brown suit, white lace waist with a Dutch collar and a gray street hat with plumes to match.

The man offered the check, drawn on the Grand Avenue Bank, after he had ordered a bill of lumber amounting to $6.75 sent to 3945 Lindell boulevard. Gehle would only give him $1.25 in change telling him to call later for the balance. After the man left, the bank was telephoned and asserted the check was worthless.

MEETING TO OUST CANTWELL, MOOSE CHAIRMAN, CALLED

Some of the Local Leaders Dissatisfied With Progressive Showing in St. Louis.

A meeting of the Progressive City Committee to oust Harry J. Cantwell as chairman and to reorganize for the municipal campaign next spring, has been called for next Monday night.

The poor showing of the Progressive national, state and city tickets in St. Louis, as compared with some other cities, is attributed by Progressive leaders to lack of efficient organization in St. Louis. After the campaign was closed, tons of literature were found in the headquarters at 517 Olive street.

Helpers sent to St. Louis. The Progressive State Committee, which transferred its headquarters from St. Louis to Kansas City, was so dissatisfied with the way things were run by the City Committee that it sent B. P. Beazell of Chillicothe and F. C. Trigg, a Kansas City newspaper man, to St. Louis to take charge of the campaign.

Trigg and Beazell organized a campaign committee headed by Arthur M. Sager, but there was such a lack of co-operation between the City Committee and the Campaign Committee, that the Progressive State leaders were dissatisfied with results.

Progressive leaders said Thursday that the matter of reorganizing the City Committee might be put up to the Executive Committee of nine members, which, under resolution by the State convention, has supervision over the City Committee, with full power to reorganize it, whenever it wishes.

The Progressives have opened new headquarters at 420 Commercial Building. Some of the Progressive leaders say that with efficient organization, Roosevelt would have received almost 50,000 votes in St. Louis instead of only 34,000 and that the Progressive city ticket would have run second to the Democratic ticket.

Jarrett Favored by Some. W. E. S. Jarrett, former chairman of the Republican City Committee, has been mentioned as the most likely successor to Cantwell, in the event the dissatisfied element among the Progressives succeed in putting through their plan of reorganization. James M. Gibson, committeeman from the Twenty-eighth Ward, is also spoken of as chairman.

By reason of the fact that the Progressive forces in St. Louis County achieved definite results by electing a Public Administrator, and aiding the Democrats in the election of a Prosecuting Attorney and a member of the Legislature, C. G. Halshup of Webster Groves, who had charge of the county organization, has been mentioned as chairman of the Executive Committee, which has supervision over the City Committee. The St. Louis County Progressives were well organized and polled almost 200 votes.

The jealousy between the two factions at Progressive headquarters was so intense that separate letter heads, bearing the names of different campaign committees, were used. National Committeeman William H. Walker, who is a member of the Committee of Nine, favors the retention of Cantwell as chairman of the City Committee.

The reorganizers have a plan to induce many Republicans to join in the municipal campaign in the spring, and fusion of the Progressives with Fusionists in the recent election, and the Socialists, has already been planned.

Want Own Candidate for Mayor. The Progressives, however, intend to put up their own candidate for Mayor, and will try to get him elected by late November. They will try to nominate a candidate for Mayor who has not been actively identified with the organization, and if they succeed, committeemen of all classes will be barred as candidates.

Judge Albert D. Norton, who made the race for Governor on the Progressive ticket, attributed the fact that the State ticket ran behind the national ticket to Progressives who had voted for the Republican State candidates in the primary election, and felt morally obligated to support them in the general election. Many voters on the Progressive ticket, he said, that they would vote for Roosevelt, but would have to vote the Republican State ticket to square themselves with their consciences.

DEMOCRAT VICTORY WINS FEWER THAN 100 JOBS IN CITY

Sheriff Will Have Nearly Half of Patronage Which Results From Election.

Fewer than 100 salaried positions will fall to Democrats as the immediate spoils of the party's decisive victory in the city election. The newly elected officers, most of whom will take their places January 1, will command only a limited patronage, with the exception of the Sheriff.

The 45 positions in the new Sheriff's office are already the object of keen striving on the part of Democratic politicians, who have been wholly excluded from the pile counter of late. Their distribution will merely serve to whet the appetite of party workers for the much bigger collection of City Hall positions, which depend on next spring's election.

Sheriff-elect Dickmann will replace Louis Nolta, who has served six years one two-year term and the first term under the new law which changed the Sheriff's tenure to four years. Dickmann served two two-year terms, and will now hold office for four years.

The Sheriff receives $10,000 a year, but there will be such a lack of excess of that amount he must turn into the city treasury. He pays several deputies $150 a month, and others $90 or $75 a month.

The four new Circuit Judges, Cave, Hennings, Jones and Koerner, will take their places Jan. 1. Their city and state salaries, combined, amount to $5500 a year each, and their term is six years. Each has the appointment of a stenographer, who receives $150 a month and receives outside pay for making transcripts of testimony, and of a janitor at $60 a month.

The retiring Judges are Shields, Homer, Muench and Charles Claffin Allen. Irvin V. Barth was elected Judge for a short term, which will be about six weeks in length. He will take office as soon as he can get a certificate of election, succeeding Judge Homer, whose appointment, under the law, expired at election time. Jan. 1 he will give way to Judge Homer's long term successor.

His chief compensation for the trouble of making a campaign will be the title of Judge, which will be his in future on the well-known principle of the legal profession "once a Judge, always a Judge."

The assignments of the new Judges to the various divisions of the Circuit Court, Civil and Criminal, will be made by the Circuit Judges in general session. The Judges also have the power of approving the Sheriff's appointments. Republicans are still in the majority among the Judges.

Ben F. Clark who will succeed Victor H. Falkenhainer as Judge of the Court of Criminal Correction, Division 2, will hold office four years at a $4000 salary. His appointments are a stenographer and a janitor.

Thomas B. Harvey, when he succeeds Seibert G. Jones as Circuit Attorney at the opening of the new year, will have the appointment of two assistants, receiving salaries of $200 to $350 a month, a clerk at $200 a month and two stenographers and three clerks at $100 each. The Circuit Attorney's term is four years, and his salary $5000. Jones has had one term.

The new Coroner, Dr. Louis R. Padberg, will have a four-year term and a $3500 salary. The retiring Coroner, Dr. Jules Baron, served two two-year terms, under the law formerly governing the office, and one four-year term under the present law.

The Coroner's patronage consists of the appointment of two deputies at $100 a month, a stenographer at $150 and two assistant stenographers at $50, a clerk at $100, porters of his office and of the city morgue at $50 a month and the superintendent and assistant superintendent of the morgue at $100 and $83.33 a month, respectively.

The office of Public Administrator, in which James P. Newell will succeed Harry Troll, is more removed from the public in its methods of administration than the others. The city does not provide quarters for the administrator, who has to pay office rent from the fees of his position. He appoints two or three deputies, whose salaries are not fixed by law, and several office assistants, and gives out a large quantity of legal work.

Troll held this office two terms. Public attention was attracted to the office, in his second term, by an investigation into the fees of the office, which were shown to net him a sum in excess of $20,000 a year. Attention was also called to the office by Troll's progressive policy in seeking to make himself administrator, by every possible means within the letter of the law, regardless of the wishes of relatives of those whose estates he sought to control.

A bill to place this office on a salary basis will be introduced into the next Legislature.

WOMAN WAR OVER MOUNT

SPOKANE, WASH., Nov. 7.—War over a mountain is being waged between two women's clubs of Spokane, and has occasioned quite a fine question of prior rights of possession. The club are contesting for the right to the name of Mount Spokane, the highest peak in Eastern Washington.

When the mountain was called Mount Carleton, a number of women organized as the Mount Carleton Club. But last August the mountain's name was changed to Mount Spokane. A second set of women promptly organized the Mount Spokane Club. The Mount Carleton Club changed its name to correspond with the new title of the favorite mountain and the contest was on.

To Remove Sallowness, Blisters or Wrinkles. (From Family Physician.) Do you realize that just beneath that coarse, muddy or discolored complexion there's an exquisitely beautiful skin of youthful tint and delicacy? If you could only bring this complexion to the surface, discarding the old one! You can—in the easiest, simplest, most natural manner imaginable. Just get an ounce of ordinary marmalade wax at any drug store, apply nightly like cold cream, removing it morning with warm water. The wax assists Nature by gradually taking off the lingering particles of dead and half-dead surface skin, causing no harm, no redness, no irritation, no discomfort whatever. Ordinarily it takes from a week to ten days to complete the transformation. Cutaneous defects like pimples, blotches, liver spots, moth patches, freckles, etc., disappear with the old skin. Nothing else that I know of will soothly and so wonderfully result in so short a time.

The fine lines and even the deeper wrinkles often appear at an early age. If such cases nothing is better than a face bath made by dissolving 1 oz. powdered soapstone in 1/2 pt. with basal. This is remarkably effective.—ADY.

The four new Circuit Judges, Cave, Hennings, Jones and Koerner, will take their places Jan. 1. Their city and state salaries, combined, amount to $5500 a year each, and their term is six years. Each has the appointment of a stenographer, who receives $150 a month and receives outside pay for making transcripts of testimony, and of a janitor at $60 a month.

The retiring Judges are Shields, Homer, Muench and Charles Claffin Allen. Irvin V. Barth was elected Judge for a short term, which will be about six weeks in length. He will take office as soon as he can get a certificate of election, succeeding Judge Homer, whose appointment, under the law, expired at election time. Jan. 1 he will give way to Judge Homer's long term successor.

His chief compensation for the trouble of making a campaign will be the title of Judge, which will be his in future on the well-known principle of the legal profession "once a Judge, always a Judge."

The assignments of the new Judges to the various divisions of the Circuit Court, Civil and Criminal, will be made by the Circuit Judges in general session. The Judges also have the power of approving the Sheriff's appointments. Republicans are still in the majority among the Judges.

Ben F. Clark who will succeed Victor H. Falkenhainer as Judge of the Court of Criminal Correction, Division 2, will hold office four years at a $4000 salary. His appointments are a stenographer and a janitor.

Thomas B. Harvey, when he succeeds Seibert G. Jones as Circuit Attorney at the opening of the new year, will have the appointment of two assistants, receiving salaries of $200 to $350 a month, a clerk at $200 a month and two stenographers and three clerks at $100 each. The Circuit Attorney's term is four years, and his salary $5000. Jones has had one term.

The new Coroner, Dr. Louis R. Padberg, will have a four-year term and a $3500 salary. The retiring Coroner, Dr. Jules Baron, served two two-year terms, under the law formerly governing the office, and one four-year term under the present law.

The Coroner's patronage consists of the appointment of two deputies at $100 a month, a stenographer at $150 and two assistant stenographers at $50, a clerk at $100, porters of his office and of the city morgue at $50 a month and the superintendent and assistant superintendent of the morgue at $100 and $83.33 a month, respectively.

The office of Public Administrator, in which James P. Newell will succeed Harry Troll, is more removed from the public in its methods of administration than the others. The city does not provide quarters for the administrator, who has to pay office rent from the fees of his position. He appoints two or three deputies, whose salaries are not fixed by law, and several office assistants, and gives out a large quantity of legal work.

Troll held this office two terms. Public attention was attracted to the office, in his second term, by an investigation into the fees of the office, which were shown to net him a sum in excess of $20,000 a year. Attention was also called to the office by Troll's progressive policy in seeking to make himself administrator, by every possible means within the letter of the law, regardless of the wishes of relatives of those whose estates he sought to control.

A bill to place this office on a salary basis will be introduced into the next Legislature.

CONGRATULATIONS FOR WILSON COME FROM ALL PARTIES

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 7.—Telegrams by the hundreds piled up at the home of President-elect Wilson today. Congratulations came from everywhere.

The Specific Purpose of Nurito is to Relieve Rheumatism Sciatica and Neuritis

To do one thing well is the single purpose of NURITO—the prescription which is a specific for diseases which result from uric acid. That one thing it does better than any other prescription has ever done—relieves rheumatism, sciatica and neuritis. The physical agony—the pains and aches disappear, relieving you of the terrific mental stress which usually attends a loss of the sleep and rest necessary to recuperate your powers and energy.

It is not a superficial or temporary relief, but a removal of the cause of the trouble. In a perfectly harmless way, NURITO contains neither opiates nor narcotics—it is simply a scientific antidote and therefore a specific.

This is the only medicine which has proven to the satisfaction of physicians that it will positively relieve rheumatic diseases.

The NURITO sublimates are daily succumbing to it. Sold in powder form in 1/2 and 1/4 boxes. Magistral Chemical Co., Flatiron Bldg., New York. For sale by Wolf-Wilson Drug Co. and all other leading druggists.

EMMA DUNN 'IS A JOY' IN PLAY 'THE GOVERNOR'S LADY'

Ripley D. Saunders, Post-Dispatch Critic, Sees New Production in New York.

LAUGHTER AND TEARS

Stage Story of a Wife Who Refused to "Grow Up" With Her Ambitious Husband.

RIPLEY D. SAUNDERS, the Post-Dispatch dramatic critic, is in New York to view the more important of the new plays produced this year. His judgment on the season's offerings will prove valuable to St. Louisans, as practically all the productions he reviews will appear later in St. Louis.

By RIPLEY D. SAUNDERS.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—While all New York was thundering with the election returns that named the next President of the United States, I went to the Republic Theater to see Emma Dunn in "The Governor's Lady," because the play's story tells us of a presidential possibility which was as much of a wife for not doing herself to shine as "The first lady in the land."

Two factors of interest are featured in this production. The first is Emma Dunn, who is very true and touching and old-fashioned and exasperating as the wife who refused to "grow up" to her husband's increasing stature in the world's eye. The second is David Belasco's fac-simile reproductions of the famous Child restaurants in a stage setting peculiar to his genius.

Emma Dunn's contribution to "The Governor's Lady" is of the most genuine value to drama. David Belasco's is a marvel of adroit photographic fidelity in upholstery, and of no dramatic value whatever.

Homeley, Convincing Play.

The play itself, by Alice Bradley, is homeley, convincing, native to the American soil and at all moments well worth while. Its central figure is Mary Slade, the role of Emma Dunn's playing, whose husband, Daniel S. Slade, coming up from poverty, has amassed a fortune, been elected Governor of his state, and surrendered his soul utterly to worldly ambition. But Mary Slade has been so busy earning his money and "keeping house" that she hasn't had time to acquire the social polish which now he demands of her.

Nor has she the inclination. She is a bit stubborn and set in her ways. To her the great Daniel S. Slade is but a big boy who must be mothered and made comfortable. In her soul she scoffs at and resents his longing for the fine fold-rols of society. And she shrinks from meeting his new and distinguished friends. She will not do so, indeed, so hardheaded is she. But all the time she loves Daniel very dearly.

Struck With Horror.

At last the smash comes. In a brutal scene between the two, Slade tells his wife that he has determined to get a divorce. Mary Slade is struck dumb with horror. She will not give her consent. Instead, and very pitifully, she says she will make herself worthy of her husband. But he tells her it is too late.

And suddenly, through the woman herself, Mary Slade learns that her Dan is planning to marry another—a wife who will adorn his new station in life. The scene between Mary and this young woman is vivid with poignant emotion. It ends in the beautiful rival becoming so consciousness-stricken as to relinquish her designs upon Slade and return to a younger sweetheart.

But now, having learned that her Dan was willing to set her aside for another woman, Mary Slade herself insists upon divorce and does divorce. Several years pass by. Mary Slade is about to go abroad. Daniel Slade, lonely and absorbed in politics, is making a series of campaign speeches in the East. He is now a big western statesman with a national reputation. Late on a snowy winter's night, he enters a Child's Restaurant in New York City, and—there you get your Belasco "touch of realism" and your inevitable American "happy ending" when Dan and Mary effect a reconciliation across one of Child's actual tables.

Old-Fashioned Woman.

But Emma Dunn as Mary Slade is a joy from start to finish. She makes you laugh and cry precisely as she did in "Mother." She is the old-fashioned woman incarnate. It must be that we of today love the old-fashioned woman. She is filling the Republic Theater at every performance.

Emmet Corrigan, a former St. Louisan, is big and competent and very faithful to the original type as Daniel S. Slade. Others in the cast are William H. Tucker, Milton Ellis, Robert McWade Jr., Bert Hyde, John M. Dewey, Gladys Hanson, Maxwell Conover and Eloise Murray. The play is admirably presented. It is one of the big hits of the season.

TRIES TO END LIFE WHEN BOY IS TAKEN FROM HER

Because her 7-year-old grandchild, Charles Smith, whom she had reared, had been taken from her, Mrs. Ella Johnson, 55 years old, of 308 Lafayette avenue took mercury poison at her home Wednesday afternoon. At the city hospital Thursday it was said she would recover.

Mrs. Johnson had had custody of the boy since her daughter, Mrs. Louie Smith, was divorced, four years ago. Last Friday Mrs. Smith went to the Johnson home and claimed the boy, taking him away from her.
"She accused me of drinking," said Mrs. Johnson. "I was so lonesome for Charley that I did not think life worth living."

HE FINDS WAY HOME

Is Abandoned by Thieves After a Long Drive

To the sagacity of his horse Louis Lautenschlager of 594 Florissant avenue owes the recovery of the animal and his buggy. The horse and buggy were stolen from in front of his place Tuesday night. Police were notified and a search was ordered. It availed nothing. Wednesday the horse walked into the stable yard. It was almost exhausted from long driving. Persons who knew the animal reported seeing it walking south on Broadway and taking this as a clue Lautenschlager went out North Broadway to the seven-mile house. Near there he found his vehicle. The outfit had evidently been abandoned after the horse was unhitched and left to graze. The horse found its way home. From the buggy were taken a cushion and a lap robe, worth $25.

REFUSES TO PUSH PENNY WITH NOSE; "FRAT" BROKEN UP

Fourth Initiate Rebels at Ordeal in Mud and Tells the School Authorities.

SIX STUDENTS SUSPENDED

Collinsville Youths Reinstated
When They Promise to Quit
Face Painting, Etc.

The Kappa Delta fraternity of the Collinsville High School has been dissolved permanently. Six of the seven of its members, who were suspended from the school, have been reinstated on their promise never to revive it.
The seventh is expected to give a similar promise Friday.

The organization's obsequies were hastened by the inability of the faculty to get the Kappa Delta's point of view. The teachers couldn't see how the fraternity boys advanced the cause of education by tying a blindfold initiate to a tree in a cemetery, painting one side of his face red and the other black, breaking one egg in his pocket and two in his hair, adding a dressing of molasses and dust to the egg in the hair and compelling him to push a penny across a muddy street with his nose.

The Kappa Delta organization existed several weeks before its existence was suspected. It belonged to no national organization, but strove to imitate some of the practices its members believed the national fraternity men observe. None of the candidates "peached," until it came the turn of the fourth, Frank Ludwig.

Ludwig stood the cemetery ordeal,
the face-painting and the rest of it, but rebelled when he was asked to push the penny across the street with his nose. He ran and escaped.
The high school superintendent,
Charles H. Dorris, and principal, A.
E. Arendt, heard his story. Then they ordered the suspension of Julius L.
Els, Harry Cohn, John William Martin, Robert Griva, Roy Jenkins, Tony Galzat and Leland Pinkel. There were several parental interviews. The repentant Kappa Deltas renounced the fraternity and reappeared at classes.
The only one not to appear is Martin.

BURGLAR, SHOT AT, JUMPS THROUGH A BIG SHOW WINDOW

The police are looking for a wounded burglar, who left a blood-stained shirt behind him at 1:30 a. m., Monday, after a shot had been fired at him by Thomas Wright of 638A North Broadway. In his flight from Wright the burglar jumped through a glass window, and it is not known whether he was struck by the bullet or cut by the glass. Before being surprised by Wright the burglar had selected 24 pairs of trousers and 24 pairs of socks from the stock and piled them in the show window through which he escaped.

ROW ABOUT 60 CENTS CAUSES DIVORCE SUIT

Mrs. Cynthia Odessa Croiset's matrimonial agency marriage to Eugene John Croiset at Billings, Mont., in July, 1907, proved a failure, and she is suing for divorce in Judge McQuinn's Court. The case was heard Wednesday, and taken under advisement, after the defendant appeared to resist the suit. Mrs. Croiset testified that she was 17 years old when she married the defendant, and she blamed her sister for urging her to answer Croiset's advertisement in a matrimonial paper. They separated July 31, last.

According to Mrs. Croiset the separation resulted from a quarrel over how she should spend 60 cents her husband had given to her. She had planned to spend it for certain articles, and he wanted her to buy other things with it, she said. He left their home at 2308 Morganford road, and went to his parents at 244 Geyer avenue. They previously quarreled over 60 cents, so let him look at a memorandum of his faults she had written. He saw her writing this, and suspected she was writing to another man, she said. He is a stenographer for a shoe house.

WOMAN PICTURED ON POSTAL OBJECTS TO IT

Mrs. Daisy Hendricks of the Powder Works Hotel in East Alton threatened Thursday to ask for an injunction against Thomas J. Philbrick, an East Alton news dealer, to restrain him from selling what she calls "mushy" picture postcards showing her hotel. She objects chiefly to a card showing a photograph of herself at the front door of the hotel, surrounded by employees and maids. Beneath the picture is a line which says: "There are some fine buildings in East Alton, but I can't hug buildings." Other cards show the same picture with such inscriptions as: "I will send you a message from East Alton—I kind-a like you, honey." "Come on to East Alton—we won't let you get home sick." "There's a girl waiting for you in East Alton; don't disappoint her."

FINDS MAN DEAD IN BED, GAS TURNED ON SLIGHTLY

Jacob Bierbaum, 41 years old, an unmarried laborer, was found dead in his room on the second floor of 115 Arsenal street at 7 o'clock Thursday morning. He had been asphyxiated. When Herman Dietrich, Bierbaum's roommate, returned from work he found the door locked and was unable to arouse Bierbaum. He broke in the window and found Bierbaum dead in bed. The gas was turned on slightly. The police say Bierbaum was drinking Wednesday and think his death was accidental. The body was taken charge of by friends. The man has no relatives in America.

ST. LOUISAN NAMED IN CONSPIRACY EVIDENCE

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 7.—News-papers clippings about a conspiracy trial read at the "dynamite conspiracy" trial today as having been sent to John J. McNamara by officials of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers. Paul J. Morris of St. Louis sent to McNamara a story of a riot at Mount Vernon, Ill., April 28, 1910, when an explosion occurred, according to other letters, and Edward Smyth of Peoria, Ill., sent full details of explosions there. All these explosions, the Government maintains, occurred after Frank M. Ryan, president of the union, had sent out instructions.

ASSORTED OLD RUBBER BOOTS ARE FOR SALE

Anyone who wants to buy some "miscellaneous old rubber boots" has a chance now. Thirty-six pairs are being offered by Supply Commissioner Thomas to the highest and best bidder. They are boots that have seen better days, but they still turn the water very nicely and will do very well for a person who is not exacting. They cost the city $4.10 a pair when they were bought for the men in the Water and Sewer departments.

GOVERNMENT FINISHING CASE AGAINST E. G. LEWIS

The Government in the case of E. G. Lewis expected to close its side of the trial some time Thursday. District Attorney Houts at 11 a. m. began reading to the jury articles written by Lewis in the Women's National Daily about his various schemes and more particularly the debenture proposition, the latest of the Lewis enterprises.

TRENDALL SEEKS BIGGER GAME IN BOUTS ON COAST

After Meeting Sherman and Keyes Here, He's Going After Top Notch Boys in Cal.

WHITNEY MEETS MURPHY

They'll Furnish the Headline Feature of Entertainment at Columbian A. C.

By CLARENCE F. LLOYD.

Harry Trendall, the best lightweight ever turned out of St. Louis, is after bigger game. The "Pride of the Patch" has held his own with all the warriors he has been sent against in the local ring, and now he seeks new worlds to conquer.

So don't be surprised if Harry catches a westbound flyer in the near future and books himself with Joe Rivers, Joe Mandot, "One Round" Hogan or, best of all, Ad Wolgast. That's the guy Trendall wants to slam. Harry has made up his mind to go to the Coast and take on any of the topnotch boys offered.

Before going Harry has a couple of engagements here. And they are not easy ones at that. River club promoters have made it unpleasant for Harry through their failure to pick dates that are agreeable for all parties concerned. For that reason Trendall will be required to meet two good boys with but a day's rest between bouts.

Two Bouts in Three Days.

It's like this: The St. Louis A. C. holds its next show at the Coliseum Nov. 15, and Trendall is slated to meet Joe Sherman, the Memphis lightweight. Two nights later, on Nov. 22, the Future City A. C., Nineteenth and Pine streets, is scheduled to open its doors, with Trendall and Bert Keyes, the New York box fighter, furnishing the main event.

It's a big job, but Trendall says he is equal to the labor. Neither bout really has been clinched. The Future City contest was originally slated for Nov. 14, but "Brooklyn Tommy" Sullivan, the manager, ran across some snag and postponed the bout to Nov. 21 without consulting Trendall. Harry will ask for a further postponement, but if that is not agreeable to Sullivan, Trendall says he'll go on.

"When I went East several years ago, it was nothing to take on two boys in as many nights," said Trendall to the Post-Dispatch. "One week I fought two bouts on the same consecutive nights and didn't get ill effects. On that tour I boxed 18 boys in three months, showing that I was pretty busy while away."

Wants to Meet Rivers.

"But I don't expect to linger in St. Louis much longer. A lot of lightweights are flocking to the coast and I'm going there, too. Tom Walsh, one of the best refs on the coast, is on California. He's after trying to book some dates for me. He's after Joe Rivers. The Mex is a favorite on the coast and Walsh thinks he's made for me."

"I was in California in 1908 and had four bouts. I beat 'Bubbles' Robinson in 10 rounds, drew with Len Louder in 20 rounds, came back and beat him in 10 rounds and lost to Freddie Welsh in six rounds. I was only a kid then and have learned a lot since. So I believe I can make the Native Sons sit up and take notice if I get another chance."

Peter Lang, a Chicago lightweight, wants to show here in December. His manager is E. L. Reeves and can be reached at 425 Ashland block, Chicago.

WOLGAST WANTED FOR NEW YEAR'S DAY BOUT

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—Promoter Coffey of San Francisco, who has announced Ad Wolgast would come here to box in defense of title Thanksgiving day, yesterday wired Tom Jones Wolgast's manager at New Orleans, to postpone the match until New Year's day.

"I will endeavor to match Frankie Burns of Oakland with Willie Ritchie or Tommy Murphy, and title the winner against Wolgast New Year's day," said Coffey. "If Mandot defeats Rivers I will try to match him."

WRAYS COLUMN

ALL OVER BUT THE SHOUTING!

WISCONSIN'S easy victory over Chicago and Harvard's surprising showing against Princeton take the test out of what promised to be one of the liveliest football seasons in the history of the game.

At present it appears the games of Saturday proved "anti-climaxes," for the overwhelming defeat of Chicago by the Badgers and the downfall of Princeton at the hands of the Crimson players stamps the two winning combinations as the best in their respective sections.

Yale, thus far, has seemed inferior to both Harvard and the Tigers, and thus only secondary battles remain to be decided in the East. Wisconsin is the only well-known Western team still undefeated, and though Minnesota has improved in every game since the reverse handed them by South Dakota, the Gophers appear to be below the quality of the Wisconsin men.

NOTRE DAME IS STRONG.

Notre Dame, the eleven which will show here Saturday against St. Louis U., is a strong factor in the Middle West, but the eleven does not observe all the customary eligibility rules and cannot, therefore, be given a look-in at the title. The team, however, has agreed not to play its freshmen in Saturday's battle here.

The present ranking of the Eastern eleven on performance so far should be: Harvard, Princeton, Yale, Brown, Dartmouth. In the West Wisconsin, Minnesota and Chicago are at the top.

THE Missouri Valley conference tangle has not been cleared up, Missouri's good showing against the strong Nebraska eleven having put that team's supremacy a trifle in doubt. On comparative scores against Missouri Ames seems quite the equal of the Cornhuskers, while Drake's defeat of Kansas and Washington put it in line for a look-in. Had Washington a stronger squad it might also have a peep, as sheer exhaustion and want of local men for third regulars cost the local eleven the game with Drake.

IT'S the easiest thing in the world to pick out the weakness of some baseball players. For example, there's Larry McLean. It doesn't take a clairvoyant to discover that the only ball Larry likes is high and on the inside.

First Regiment Swimmers Draw Big Handicaps

M. A. C. Paddlers Will Start From Scratch in Dual Meet With Soldier Boys.

A handicap dual meet between the Missouri Athletic Club and First Regiment swimmers will be held in the M. A. C. tank Thursday evening. Seven events are on the program. Because of the wider experience of the downtown paddlers, they will start from scratch in a majority of the events, conceding handicaps to the soldier-swimmers, based on previous performances. The entries:

50 yards—Baker and McManus, M. A. C.; Brock and Crawford, First Regiment.
100 yards—Murphy and McManus, M. A. C.; Harrington and Baum, First Regiment.
220 yards—Heath and Ross, M. A. C.; O'Gorman and Harrington, First Regiment.
100 yards, back stroke—De Costa and Heath, M. A. C.; Twilker and Parker, First Regiment.

Relay—Baker, McManus, Heath and Murphy, M. A. C.; Harrington, Baum, O'Gorman and Peabody, First Regiment.
Water polo—Siegel, Cohn, Stone, Boland, McManus and Richardson, M. A. C.; Von O'Connor and Harrington, First Regiment.
The league is composed of the same teams that formed the organization last year. Sunday's schedule: Rock Church vs. St. Marks; second game, Christian Brothers College vs. Visitation. Billy Bascom will again serve as official referee.

LANSING'S RETURN HELPS BILLIKENS; ODDS TAKE DROP

Fast Lineman of St. Louis U. Reports to Coach Dennie for Practice.

By W. J. O'CONNOR.

Betting odds have been poured down from 5 to 1 to even money on the St. Louis U.-Notre Dame football game at Sportsman's Park Saturday afternoon.

Originally the supporters of the South Bend eleven were willing to take the long end of the bet but advice from Indiana Thursday said that even money is the best that can be had. Followers of the Billikens team are sanguine in their belief that Dennie's men will slip Notre Dame the short end of the count. The appearance of Al Lansing, the speedy lineman Wednesday, had a tendency to boost the Billikens stock and there's a chance that St. Louis U. students may lay odds before game time Saturday.

Billikens Star Reports.

Lansing will not be used against Notre Dame unless Dennie's forward defense gives way. However Lansing is a sure enough star and his presence on the field is calculated to inspire confidence in the whole blue and white squad.

Indeed Dennie no longer is worrying about his line. This department looked weak at the start of the season but the improved playing of Donovan at center coupled with the fact that in Lansing, Snedec, Berken and Ayers, Dennie has four formidable substitutes, makes the forward defense look pretty good.

Dennie will use his regular line-up at the start of the game. The team that defeated Creighton by such a healthy score last Saturday will be sent against the South Bend kickers when play begins and Dennie is confident that he will have to make few substitutions.

Dennie takes no stock in the reports from Notre Dame that Eichenlaub, the star fullback of the Notre Dame team, will be absent from Saturday's conflict. This is purely a "best" yarn, Dennie believes.

Referee Still a Problem.

No agreement has as yet been reached on the referee. Notre Dame is holding out for Walter Eckersall, the Chicago official, and former hero of Stagg's maroon eleven, while the local team favors Walter Krause, the former Washington U. man. A compromise may be effected Thursday.

In hope of attracting a bulky crowd, it has been decided to hold the game at 2 o'clock for the Notre Dame game. Originally it was planned to charge $1 for the general admission tickets to this game, but an eleven-hour agreement between the two managers resulted in a decision to cut the price of admission in twain.

A 3-0 victory over Pittsburg U. is the most notable conquest credited to Notre Dame so far this season. The South Bend boys also beat Washak, 41-0, and have yet to lose a game, although it is hard to get a line on their real playing strength. Pittsburg was beaten, 45-0, by Carleton a week previous to Notre Dame's triumph over the Smokehouse eleven.

Backfield Stars to Play.

Local football fans will get their first chance Saturday of seeing Harry Rayman and Art Zachritz, two speedy halfbacks, working together. In all the preliminary games, either Zach or Rayman has been on the side lines. If they're in shape Saturday it should be worth the price of admission to see them in action.

An automobile parade will be held Saturday afternoon starting from the St. Louis undergraduate department at Grand and West 11th and winding up at Sportsman's Park. The students will make a tour of the downtown business district in hope of earning a few more patrons for the big game.

Calmer to Represent St. Louis in Opening Match of Cue League

E. V. Calmer has been picked to represent St. Louis in the inaugural match of the National Amateur Three-Cushion League Thursday evening, when Charles Warren of Boston takes for a three-game series. Calmer has the honor of playing the first match because of his good showing against Peterson and Maupome in the try-out tournaments recently held at Peabody.

The Boston entry hasn't accomplished a great deal to date. Mr. Warren lost three straight in Peabody, a like number in Chicago and then dropped two out of three in Kansas City. He was beaten Wednesday even by Stanley Landrum.

Sherman Easily Leads Champion De Oro in Match for Pool Title

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Frank Sherman of Washington, D. C., led Alfredo De Oro by the score of 200 balls to 129 last night in the first bout of their match for the world's pool championship at Doyle's Academy.

Sherman has a high run of 39 and De Oro one of 24 balls. From the beginning it was a procession with the challenger leading. His execution, position and combinations simply defeated De Oro.

With the single exception of the second frame, Sherman had all the better of the first 10 frames, by which he ran into a lead of 100 balls to 40. De Oro, however, evaded him and gave the impression of not settling into his game. He bungled promising chances in the fifth and sixth frames by ripping into his shots with unreasoning speed, so that the ball jumped back from the pockets. Furthermore, he displayed uncertainty during a tilt at safety tactics in the sixth frame, with the result that Sherman finally outguessed him.

Toward the close he played more carefully. He missed the easiest sort of shots, however, and by poor position, also, evaded his chances. He made many scratches.

All-Western Quarter Will Be Sent Against St. Louis U., Saturday

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Nov. 7.—Notre Dame, which will meet St. Louis University with a team somewhat weakened by the loss of Cook, Fitzgerald and Stephenson. These men are freshmen, hence not eligible to play against St. Louis. This greatly weakens Notre Dame's line, since these three men are linemen.

The game with Pittsburg U. proved a rough one, and as a result the team suffered many minor injuries, which, however, will not keep any of the men out of the game on Saturday. The team returned from Pittsburg on Monday morning, and they leave for St. Louis today, giving Coach Marks but three days to prepare for Saturday's game.

The game will depend on a great deal on the backfield, as these four men are all veterans. Capt. Dorais, a likely candidate for All-Western quarterback, will do the kicking and much more is expected from him, as his punts in the Pittsburg game averaged 30 yards. It was his dropkick from the 30-yard line that won the game for Notre Dame.

Edmunds, Pliska and Berger are all fast men and their weight and speed should be a big factor in the coming game.

Roger Doomed to Remain in the National League?

Browns' Chance to Get Bresnahan Slim, According to National League Rule Quoted for the Post-Dispatch by Garry Herrmann, National Commission Head.

Roger Bresnahan, ex-Cardinal manager, may not be free to sign with the Browns after Friday, when his 10 days' notice of unconditional release expires.

In a decision handed down by Garry Herrmann, Thursday, Bresnahan still will be the property of the National League and must negotiate with one of the many clubs which have claimed him. Here's Herrmann's view of the matter:

CINCINNATI, Nov. 7.

The National League constitution provides that when a player is given his unconditional release he shall be ineligible to contract with a club of another league for a period of 10 days, during which time any club in the National League may claim him without cost. GARRY HERRMANN, President Cincinnati Exhibition Co.

Inasmuch as owner Dreyfus of the Pirates has filed claims to Bresnahan, it will be impossible for Roger to speak out of the parent body. Brooklyn and Chicago also claimed the Cardinals' former manager, and it's now up to these three clubs to induce Roger to sign a new contract.

However, they will have to offer the Duke a contract that pleases him. When Mr. Herrmann says Bresnahan can be claimed "without cost," he means that Roger can be had without paying any sum to the St. Louis club. He's no longer the property of the Cardinals club, and is free to sell himself to any National League team other than St. Louis.

O'Day and Wolverton to Go.

Two more managerial shifts were made certain in the big leagues for the 1913 campaign by developments Wednesday. Hankus O'Day formally resigned his berth in Cincinnati, while Owner Farrell of the Yankees tied the jangling tin to Harry Wolverton, who was resigning his berth in New York.

Neither move was a surprise. O'Day has been a procession with the challenger leading. His execution, position and combinations simply defeated De Oro.

With the single exception of the second frame, Sherman had all the better of the first 10 frames, by which he ran into a lead of 100 balls to 40. De Oro, however, evaded him and gave the impression of not settling into his game. He bungled promising chances in the fifth and sixth frames by ripping into his shots with unreasoning speed, so that the ball jumped back from the pockets. Furthermore, he displayed uncertainty during a tilt at safety tactics in the sixth frame, with the result that Sherman finally outguessed him.

KIRKWOOD WINNER OVER PATSY KLINE

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—George Kirkwood, the St. Louis featherweight, defeated Patsy Kline of Newark in their 16-round bout before the Fairmont A. C. here last night. Several times Kline landed safely on Kirkwood's face and body, but the mastery of the Easterner's punches were cleverly blocked. Besides landing oftener, Kirkwood's blows seemed to have more force behind them. The victory means a match with Champion Kilbane for Kirkwood.

DeCory Club and Revolver Club have announced their intention to form a set of possible referees in St. Louis right now. The growth of the soccer game, however, has caused the formation of a referees' association, the same as the one in the East. The officials are controlled by a set of association officers, much the same way as a league of teams.

TINKER WILL NOT HEAD THE REDS; CUBS' DEAL OFF

President Murphy Wanted Bescher and Four Others for Shortstop.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 7.—Following a conference here today between President August Herrmann of the Cincinnati club and President Murphy of the Chicago Nationals, the deal for Joe Tinker, to act as manager of the Cincinnati team next season, was declared off.

Herrmann declared Murphy demanded that Bob Bescher, outfielder of the local team, be included with other players in the trade and that he could not accede to the demand.

TAD JONES BREAKS RIB IN EXETER PRACTICE

EXETER, Nov. 7.—Tad Jones, the former Yale quarterback, who has been coaching the Exeter Academy team, is confined to his room here by injuries received while playing with the scrubs this week. In a scrimmage, he suffered a broken rib and a painful injury to the left shoulder.

Nov. 6 this was caught and the machine was stopped.

JUVENILE JOSHES

Done in black for the Post-Dispatch
By J. K. BRYANS

"See here, young man! Have you any excuse for being so late?"
"Yes, teacher, I got a peach of a one, but I'm so excited dat I can't think of it just dis minute!"

"My boy, I rejoice to see you so eager for school!"
"Yessir, it's on fire, and I'm hurryin' ter see it before dey puts it out!"

THE JARR FAMILY

By Roy L. McCardell

The Jarrs see the dear old English farce, unaltered.

THE curtain went up on the play; the stage being fairly well lighted; but so far as the body of the theater was concerned, the man-agement was as stinky with the lights as a boarding house proprietress would have been.

more enlightened in those things on the other side.

One of the first characters to appear was a butler, who turned on a little more light. He also talked through the telephone and arranged the morning newspapers on the library table.

Oh, the technique and construction in playwrighting have advanced considerably. Hardly a play now begins with a wisp of a lace apron, the pockets decorated with ribbon bows, who formerly introduced us to the drama by dusting the southeast leg of a table and the upper edge of a sofa-back while she imparted the information to herself and the audience that "Master Harold came home pretty jolly at 4 this morning. There's his bell ringing now! Coming, sir, coming!" (Exit with pitcher of ice water, to laughs and a mild pat-ter of applause.)

But the butler did say "There's the bell! Who can be calling at this hour?" and immediately admitted a bald, red-nosed old man in a shabby frock coat.

"I'll bet $20 against a Bull Moose button that this party has a red handkerchief pinned to the tail of his frock coat!" whispered Mr. Jarr.

The character in question turned and bowed grotesquely to the butler, and swore enough he HAD a red handkerchief pinned to the tail of his coat. How did Mr. Jarr know?

It then transpired that the man with the handkerchief pinned to the tail of his coat was a cabman, humbly, at first, seeking payment for the glass kicked out of his vehicle. "By the young man as who comes to this 'ouse last night, wif the young marster."

It had been too late to read the play-bill, but at these words Mr. Jarr knew the locale of the play was in dear old London.

A little later on a policeman was announced who was looking for the young man who had bantered a young lady to kick his helmet "hoff as they paraded in a 'ansom."

Mr. Jarr again made book that this policeman would have red side whiskers. True enough, he had. Mrs. Jarr then said:

"You have seen this play before?"

"Lots of times," said Mr. Jarr.

"Eris plays the 'ussar officer," said the lady from England to her companion. "E'll show them 'ow to wear a uniform."

"E'll have nothing new," whispered Mr. Jarr to his wife.

"Who'll have nothing new?" returned the lady.

"The 'ussar officer who is due to mix up the complications," replied Mr. Jarr.

"The hysterical young woman who has come in demanding her purse, which she thinks young Master Harold robbed her of, will hide behind that screen in the corner when she hears the voice of the 'ussar, for he'll be coming to challenge young Master Harold to a duel for abducting his sweetheart from the mask ball. Young Master Harold having got in the wrong cab. For it's all a mistake, as we'll find in the last act, after young master's fiancée finds she has no reason at all to be jealous of her dearest friend, the young lady in blue, who is engaged to the fire-eating hussar."

"There's Eris now. 'Ow well he walks!" remarked the lady from England.

"I told you so!" cried Mr. Jarr in a repressed voice.

"Told me what?" asked Mrs. Jarr.

"That the 'ussar officer would come in with his military coat, or dolman, pinned over his left shoulder, one sleeve in front and the one behind. Some day a play will be produced with a policeman without red whiskers, a comedy shabby genteel character who will not pin a red handkerchief to his coat tails, and

CALLED TO ORDER.

STORIES ST. LOUISANS TELL

PAPRIKA FOR THE PROGRESSIVE.

PAUL V. JANIS, campaigning for the Bull Moose party, met a grave gentleman of high standing in the affairs of an interior Missouri city, who was vituperative in his condemnation of the man who shot Col. Roosevelt at Milwaukee.

"And to think," he shouted, "that they tried that murderous creature for his smallest offense and let him off with a fine of $100, closing the door to further prosecution!"

This was news to Mr. Janis, who indignantly inquired: "On what charge could they try him that would justify so small a penalty?"

"Shooting Bull Moose out of season," said his new friend, sadly.

Haden't Heard of Him.

A YOUNG man very much excited rushed up to a policeman and exclaimed:

"Say, Jim, did you hear about a Greek by the name of Socrates taking poison?"

"I did not," Jim replied innocently. Then he added, thoughtfully, stroking his chin:

"Sure, that's the first time I ever heard of a Greek going up against anything stronger than what he sells in his own coffee houses. I guess I'd better look this up and bulletin all the details to the department. It's an unusual case."—Kansas City Journal.

Alas!

"ARE you the same Evans who stole $50,000 from Silverman's bank four years ago?" demanded the Magistrate.

"No," replied the witness, "I've got to say, sir, I am not."
